Dear Friends & Family,

2004 was a year full of blessings and God's working. As we look ahead to 2005 we are certain our Lord will remain faithful through good times and hard times.

2005 Changes:

Lisa is no longer working as a cook here at Id-Ra-Ha-Je. This is due to her pregnancy. She has had bad "morning sickness" that seems to be more like "day sickness". Please keep her in your prayers through this time.

A Baby is definitely going to bring change! We look forward to its arrival. The due date is July 16th. At our last appointment we were able to hear the heartbeat! And next time we should have a picture of the ultrasound! What a miracle it is to think that God is creating a human life.

Jed, yep I have some new things coming this year, too. As of this month I am starting firefighter training. It is an exciting way to volunteer in our community and I pray I can be a witness to some of the men on the department. I also have the added responsibility of computer administrator to my job here at Camp as well as Follow-up Director. Please pray for strength and wisdom.

This year holds much more, and we look forward to seeing God work. Please let Lisa and I know how we can pray for you this coming year, as we hope you will pray for ours.

God Bless,

Jed, Lisa, & Baby

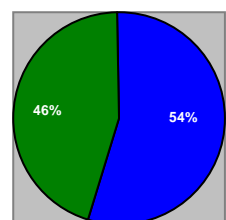

Camp news and support

Camp is going well. Our support is in need of bring up to 100%. We have raised 54%. This need is more urgent with Lisa no longer working and the baby on the way.

We have faith the Lord will bring people to join in our ministry through support. Camp has also asked us to find someone to cover our $100.00 housing fee for living in camp housing. Please keep these things in your prayers.
